By HIS EXCELLENCY

WILLIAM HENRY LYTTELTON, Esq;

Captain-General, and Governor in Chief, in and over His Majesty's said Province.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the Governor, Council and Assembly of this Province, are authorized and impowered to make, ordain and constitute Laws, Statutes, and Ordinances, for the public Peace, Welfare, and good Government of the same; which Laws, Statutes and Ordinances are to be as nearly as may be agreeable to the Laws and Statutes of Great-Britain, and are to be transmitted to His Majesty for His Royal Approbation or Disallowance: AND WHEREAS an Act was passed the 8th Day of May 1754, intitled, An Act for incorporating the Charles-Town Library Society; which Act having been under Consideration, the Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations, and also of a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's most honourable Privy Council, and the said Lords of the Committe having reported as their Opinion to their Excellencies the Lords Justices in Council, that the said Act was proper to be approved, their Excellencies the Lords Justices were pleased, with the Advice of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, to declare their Approbation of the said Act, and pursuant to their Lordship's Pleasure thereupon expressed, the said Act is hereby confirmed, finally enacted, and ratified accordingly: I have therefore thought fit to issue this my Proclamation, to give Notice unto all Persons whom it may concern, that the said Act is ratified and confirmed, that they may not pretend Ignorance thereof.

By His Excellency's Command,
John Murray, pro Dep. Secr.

In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my Hand, and caused the Great Seal of this His Majesty's said Province to be hereunto affixed, this Eighth Day of January, Anno Domini One Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty-Seven, and in the Thirtieth Year of His Majesty's Reign.

William-Henry Lyttelton.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

ADMIRALTY OFFICE, November 6.

BY letters from vice admiral Watson, dated the 15th of February and 10th of March last, in Gerish harbour, we have an account, that he arrived off that place the 11th of February, with the ships undermentioned, where he was informed, Tulagee Angria was treating with the Morattees to surrender the place to them.

In consequence of this intelligence, the vice-admiral sent him a summons the next morning, to surrender the town and fort to him, but receiving no answer in the time he proposed, and finding the Morattees (from whom he has received no assistance) were trifling with him, he weighed in the afternoon, and stood into the harbour in two divisions, in the order as undermentioned The enemy fired at the ships as they passed their batteries; but as soon as they were got by them, and were properly placed, they began such a fire as soon silenced their batteries, and likewise the fire from their grabs. Soon after 4 o'clock a shell was thrown into the Restoration, an armed ship which Angria some time ago took from the East India company, which set her on fire, and very soon after his whole fleet shared the same fate, and are all entirely destroyed. In the night the vice-admiral landed all his troops suspecting the enemy would endeavour to let in the Merattoes; which supposition was verified by a deserter, who informed Mr. Watson, that Angria (who himself was not in the fort) had sent orders to his brother-in-law, who commanded the garison, on no account to suffer the English to come in.

On the 13th in the afternoon, after several messages had passed to no purpose, the vice admiral renewed the attack, and in about 20 minutes they flung out a flag of truce; but the admiral insisting that his troops should be let in, and their coleurs hawl'd down, and they not complying with his demand, he repeated his attack with great vigour, and the enemy very soon called out for mercy, which our troops were near enough to hear very distinctly. An officer with 60 men marched into the fort that night, and the next morning all our forces.

The vice admiral reports, that his officers and men behaved with great spirit; that our loss was very inconsiderable, as well with respect to men as to the damage done to the ships, insomuch that he should have been able to have proceeded to sea again in 24 hours, had there been a necessity for so doing.

They found upwards of two hundred guns in the place, six brass mortars, and a very large quantity of ammunition of all kinds; and in money and effects about 120,000 l. or 130,000 l.

The grabs, which were burnt, consisted of 8 ketches and one ship, besides two others which were building, one of which was to carry 40 guns, and a considerable number of small vessels call'd Gallivarts.

There were in the fort about 2,000 people, 300 of whom bore arms. Among the prisoners are, Angria's wife and children, his mother, his brother-in-law, and the commander in chief of his grabs.

The vice admiral has left about 300 of the East-India company's European troops in the garison, and as many seapoys, and 3 or 4 of the company's arm'd vessels in the harbour, for the defence of the place.

as it is judged to be extreamly well ſituated for the intereſt of the company, and very tenable.

CHARLES-TOWN, January 13.

A private Veſſel of War is at laſt fitted out here, by Capt. Thomas Tucker, (one of our Pilots) who is to command her: She has been compleatly fitted, victualled, mann'd, &c. ſome Days, and only waits for a Commiſſion in order to proceed on a Cruize againſt His Majeſty's Enemies.

According to our laſt Advices from London, by Capt Thompſon, and Capt. Biſhop, (which laſt left Dartmouth the 7th of December) Admiral Byng was ſhortly to be tried by a Court Martial at Portſmouth, which was to conſiſt of 5 Admirals and 8 Captains; and has in the mean Time Leave to remove to his own Houſe, in Cuſtody of the Marſhal of the Admiralty: General Blakeney was arrived in London, had waited on His Majeſty, and alſo on the Duke of Cumberland, and met with a very gracious Reception: The Hanoverian Auxiliaries were embarking for Germany, and were to be ſoon followed by the Heſſians: Several great Changes had taken Place in the Britiſh Miniſtry, which we ſhall give our Readers when we have them from undoubted Authority: The French have reſolved to ſend 5 more Regiments to America; ſent out 6 Ships of the Line from Breſt on the 26th of October, who ſteered a W. S. W. Courſe; and have left their two ableſt Admirals, Macnamara and Galiſſoniere: The King of Pruſſia had put his Army into Winter Quarters; and intended to fix his Head Quarters at Dreſden: Eighty Thouſand Ruſſians, under General Apraxin, were marching to invade the Pruſſian Territories: And Preparations for War were making in all Parts of the Empire.

On Friday laſt arrived ſome Expreſſes, from our Agent in the Creek Nation, and from Teneſee.

The ſame Day His Excellency the Governor went with the Commiſſioners of Fortification, to view the new Works making at Fort Johnſon.

We hear, that the Chickeſaws either have applied to this Government, or intend to do it ſhortly, to build a Fort in their Nation: Without which they cannot ſafely go out to War againſt their Enemies, who now ſurround them: And it is thought, that Gratitude (if there was no other Motive) will induce us to comply with their reaſonable Requeſt.

On Tueſday arrived Capt. Adams from Providence, who informs us, that Capt. Canton in a Bermuda Privateer, had ſent in there a Dutch Sloop laden with Indico and Coffee, from Cape François bound for Curacoa, the Maſter of which honeſtly declared that his whole Cargo was French Property.

There is certain Advice that the Little Carpenter with ſome other principal Headmen of the Cherokee's, are upon their Journey hither.

MR. John Holmes, of Christ-Church parish, advertises a large bay pacing horse, with a black mane and tail, a white spot on his side, branded on the mounting shoulder like an A, and on the mounting thigh S, and about ten years old, Whoever owns the said horse, must apply to Tacitus Gaillard.

ALL persons indebted to the estate of Doct. Peter Nygh, late of Dorchester, are desired to make speedy payment, either to Mr. John Snelling at Bacon bridge, or to Mrs. Nygh in Union-street, in order to enable her to pay the debts of the said estate, she intending for Holland by the first opportunity. Anne Nygh, Executrix.

RUN AWAY from the subscriber's plantation on Wadmalaw, about a month ago, a negro fellow named George, well known on the island. Whoever delivers him to my overseer on the said plantation shall have 3 l. reward, or to me in Charlestown 5 l. John Jones.

Who will give good encouragement to an overseer (properly recommended) that understands the making of good Indico.

A Man that is thoroughly acquainted with teaching of children, and will come well recommended, may have good encouragement, by applying to William Townsend, on John's Island.

RUN AWAY from Col. Pinckney's plantation at Beach Hill, about a month since, the following negroes: Quamino, a tall black fellow, a cooper by trade, speaks very plain English. Peter, a mustee short squat fellow, with black curl'd hair. Ishmael, Cæsar, Cuffee, and Sawpit, all of a middle stature, and speak plain English. The two first have been seen in Charles Town since they ran away. Any person, white or black, that will apprehend the said run aways, and deliver them, or either of them, to James Welsh overseer at the said plantation, to the warden of the work house, or to the subscriber in Charlestown, shall receive for the first named in the advertisement seven pounds, and for all or either of the five last mentioned five pounds current money each Dec. 24, 1756.

William Pinckney.

ON wednesday the 26th instant will be sold, at public vendue, the personal estate of the Rev. Mr. Thomas Bell deceased, consisting of several valuable books, household furniture, cattle, horses, sheep, &c. at the late dwelling house of the said deceased. All sums under 20 pounds to be paid in ready money, and for all above credit will be given till the first of January next, paying interest, and giving such security as shall be required, by Elizabeth Bell, Administratrix.

RUN away from the Subſcriber's plantation at Gooſe-Creek, a few months ago, a muſtee fellow named Stepney, formerly belonging to John Sanders at Ponpon; an artful ſenſible fellow, who can readily invent a plauſible tale if queſtioned; low of ſtature and pretty ſlim, well acquainted in moſt of the pariſhes in this province, and not long ſince apprehended at Santee and at Dorcheſter. Whoever delivers him to me in Charles-Town, or at either of my plantations, ſhall have Ten Pounds reward.

RAWLINS LOWNDES.

WHEREAS the Plantation I live upon, has been for many years unoccupied and left open, and thereby become a haunt for ſeveral perſons to make uſe of it as a landing place from the river, their negroes waiting for many days together with their horſes; and ſeeing my tract is very ſmall, and but a few chains broad, terminating to a narrow point at the bluff where I have built my houſe, this practice has been hurtful, and muſt be attended with diverſe and manifeſt inconveniencies to me; and as every planter on the iſland has a landing of his own: I THEREFORE hereby forbid all perſons from making uſe of my landing, and the more eſpecially that the road to and from it now runs through the middle of my planting land, having joined fences with Mr. John Holmes, whoſe tract is exactly of the ſame meaſurement with mine, terminating in the ſame manner at his houſe upon the bluff, and for the ſame reaſons he joins in this prohibition with reſpect to his landing: And if any perſon or perſons pay no regard to this advertiſement (as it is preſumed no gentleman will) they may expect that it will be enforced in a proper manner.

Charles Lorimer.
John Holmes.

Mr. Timothy,

ON reading a late advertiſement in your paper of the 6th inſtant, ſigned Charles Lorimer and John Holmes, I beg the favour, for the benefit of the Inhabitants of John's Iſland, to have that paragraph explained under a parenthеſis, viz. (as it is preſumed no gentlemen will): It will be a means to know if any notice is to be paid to that or any other paragraph contained in the ſaid advertiſement.

A Freeholder of John's Iſland.
